Sub: Permission to Conduct Online Guest Lecture by Department of History

Respected Sir,

I respectfully request your permission to conduct an online guest lecture on 07/04/2026 ,11:00 AM to 12:00 noon organized by the Department of History.

We have invited Dr. Mohammed Shameem K.K., Assistant Professor from Vignan University, to deliver a lecture for our students. The topic will be related to the history syllabus and will be highly useful for I B.A. History students to improve their subject knowledge and understanding.

The lecture will be conducted in online mode on a suitable date and time with your approval. This session will provide valuable academic exposure and help students gain insights from an experienced faculty member.

We kindly request you to grant permission to organize this online guest lecture.

Thanking you.

Yours sincerely,

REPORT ON GUEST LECTURE

The Department of History, Government Degree College, Rampachodavaram, organized an invited talk on 07/04/2026 in the Digital Classroom from 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM. The resource person for the session was Dr. Mohammed Shameem K.K., Assistant Professor, Department of Social Sciences and Humanities, Vignana University, Guntur.

The topic of the talk was “Beyond Kings and Kingdoms: Rethinking How We Study History.” Dr. Shameem delivered an insightful lecture highlighting the importance of studying history beyond traditional political narratives. He explained various branches of history such as environmental history, social history, subaltern history, gender history, cultural history, food history, textile history, sports history, trade history, and maritime history. His lecture helped students understand how history is connected to everyday life and different aspects of society.

The program was attended by the Principal, Sri D. Ravi Kumar, and Vice Principal, Smt. J. Suneetha Kumari, along with the faculty members of the History Department. Students of History I, II, and III years actively participated in the session and benefited from the informative talk.

The session was highly useful for students as it broadened their perspective and encouraged them to explore new areas in the study of history.

The program concluded successfully with a vote of thanks by Ch.Stevenson,II BA History.
